However, I don't know the approach for migration of specific DocType. Note: In the questions, document type was a specific character. However, actual case is much more complex. A: The list of DocTypes is here (HTML, find it via the filter button in the upper right corner). But the questions mostly are easily answered by searching for those tags. Some are really questions that belong on SO or SuperUser. Regarding the DocType you mentioned: I don't know of any tools that will allow you to
